

Money Management for Teens & Adults

For Ages 12 to 82

Cadette Troop 2613 of Metropolitan AME in partnership with the
The Literacy Institute for Financial Enrichment (LIFE)

present:

“Family Financial Fitness Forum”

So your child wants another pair of sneakers.
Your parent wants a new car.

Bring the family to:

- Learn how to budget and live within your means/allowances
- Learn how to develop a savings and spending plan
- Learn how your values impacts your decision-making, spending, and lifestyle choices
- Learn how to wisely manage credit, student loans, car payments, and other bills

Jan. 28, 2017
1:30pm-5:00pm

(doors open at 1:15 pm)

Metropolitan AME Church
1518 M St NW
Washington DC 20009

Fee -$5 student, $10 adult (Students must be accompanied by an adult. Limited space)

Register by Jan 25 at:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/family-financial-fitness-a-wealth-building-forum-for-ages-12-to-82-tickets-30735762493>

Light refreshments served

For more info contact:
Deborah Berry at deborahdberry@aol.com or
Karla Bruce-Choice at karlabruce@hotmail.com

Confirmed Speakers:

Michelle Singletary

Nationally Syndicated Personal Finance Columnist, The Washington Post

Author, "The 21 Day Financial Fast: Your Path to Financial Peace and Freedom"

 Purchase an autographed copy of Michelle's book online for a discount

Michelle will lead a special workshop for adults from 3:30 – 4:30

Lanta Evans-Motte, MBA, RFC, RICP

Financial Advisor, Raymond James Financial Services, Member FINRA/SIPC
Director of Outreach, Literacy Institute for Financial Enrichment (LIFE)

Note: The workshop includes both separate and joint sessions for students and adults.
Register online by January 16 to be entered into a drawing for special door prizes